Center for Life Science Technology (CLS) are very pleased to announce our Betox-93® are now certified Organic. Betox-93® (Beta 1,3/1,6 D-Glucan) is extracted from oyster mushrooms that are organically grown in isolated and strictly controlled conditions. The mushrooms polysaccharide and purity level makes Betox-93® highly efficacious and cost effective.

The Beta Glucan market is one of the fastest growing singular ingredients in the dietary supplement as well as cosmeceutical market but its far from a mature market which makes Betox-93® very interesting for any brand owner looking for added value not only in the sense of efficacy but also the marketing story of Beta Glucan is highly interesting and scientifically proven efficacy. Beta Glucan is an Immune regulator which is unique as many immune system ingredients either boosts or decreases your immune system and this can lead to some consumers getting a negative effect to what is really desired. Betox-93®, Purity + quality = Effectiveness, even at low dosages.
